

THE NEWS OF NORFOLK ON PAGES 2, 3, 5 AND 6.

WEATHER REPORT.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 13, 1899.
Forecast for Tuesday and Wednesday:
For Virginia—Warmer, with increasing cloudiness Tuesday; cloudy Tuesday night; Wednesday rain and warmer; variable winds shifting to easterly, and increasing in force Tuesday night.
For North Carolina—Fair and warmer Tuesday; light to fresh southeasterly winds; Wednesday partly cloudy.

Norfolk and vicinity.

WEATHER FORECAST FOR TO-DAY.

Fair and warmer; variable winds.

TEMPERATURE, RAINFALL AND HUMIDITY.

November 13th, 1899.
Maximum temperature ..... 62
Minimum temperature ..... 40
Normal temperature ..... 51
Departure from normal ..... minus 6
Departure from normal since January 1st ..... plus 117
Rainfall in past 24 hours ..... 0
Rainfall since last of month ..... .23
Mean relative humidity ..... 66

CALENDAR.

Sun rises at 6:43 a. m. and sets at 4:56 p. m.

TIDES.

Norfolk—High water, 6:12 a. m. and 6:46 p. m. Low water, 0:00 a. m. and 12:39 p. m.
Old Point—High water, 6:51 a. m. and 6:24 p. m. Low water, 11:39 a. m. and 12:18 p. m.

DIED.

WILSON—At St. Vincent's Hospital Sunday morning, November 13th, 1899, at 6:30 o'clock, JAMES R. WILSON, of Smithfield, Va., aged 43 years.
Interment in Elmwood Cemetery MONDAY, November 13th.
Burial papers please copy.

TROWER—At the residence of her son-in-law, L. Joe LeFaucheur, No. 255 Fenchurch street, Monday, November 13th, 1899, at 11 o'clock a. m., Mrs. MARGARET SCOTT TROWER, widow of the late Captain J. R. Trower, in the 65th year of her age.

The funeral will take place from Freeman Street Baptist Church (corner of Freeman and Bank streets) WEDNESDAY MORNING at 11 o'clock. Friends of the family are invited to attend. 2t
Ledger copy.

MOSELEY—At No. 109 Church street, Monday, November 13th, 1899 at 6:30 a. m., EUTAW MOSELEY, in the 46th year of his age.

Funeral will take place THIS (Tuesday) AFTERNOON, November 14, from above residence at 3:30 o'clock. Friends and acquaintances invited to attend.
Richmond papers please copy.

Monuments and Gravestones.
The selection of a suitable memorial in marble or granite can be readily made from our stock, for we carry the largest assortment of finished designs in the South.
THE COUPER MARBLE WORKS
Established 50 Years.
159 163 Bank St. Norfolk, Va.

SEE 1894.
A STATED COMMUNICATION OF A CORINTHIAN LODGE No. 266, A. F. & A. M., will be held in their lodge room, Ingram's Hall, corner of Brambleton and Reservoir avenues, 1118 (Tuesday) EVENING, November 14th, at 7:30 o'clock.
All Master Masons in good standing are fraternally invited to be present.
By order W. M.
L. J. OLIVER Secretary.

AMUSEMENTS.
ACADEMY | NOV. 15.
HERBERT KELCY AND EFFIE SHANNON, presenting
"The Moth and the Flame."
Prices, $1.50, $1.00, 50c, and 25c. no12-3t

ACADEMY OF MUSIC.
THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 16, 1899.
The Second Lecture in the
—PROTESTANT HOSPITAL COURSE—
Will be given at the Academy of Music Thursday, November 16th, at 8 p. m., by —DR. F. D. POWER—

of Washington, D. C. This lecture will be delivered by a gifted Virginian, and a rare treat is in store for all who may attend. Subject—"BLOODHEAD."
General admission, 50c. no14-2t

RUDITORIUM THEATRE
JAS. M. BARTON, Prop.
Only Vaudeville House
Playing High Class Acts.

L. H. WHITEHURST
Is conducting the most up-to-date store.
I am using modern methods. I buy in large quantities and sell so close to cost that the goods go out of the store almost as soon as we unpack them. A little profit on a great many sales is the guiding star of the business.

Coats, Capes, and Furs
Styles and prices can't be beat.

Dress Goods in Black and Colored
A large stock and at bottom prices. Anything you want in Dry Goods or Notions. Call at 338 Main street and you will be apt to find it.

L. H. Whitehurst,
336 MAIN STREET.
New Phone 857.

TAKE
DR. PARKER'S
DYSPEPSIA TABLETS
For Dyspepsia or Indigestion.
25 DOSES FOR 10c.
Money refunded if not satisfied.

FOR SALE AT
Trotter's Drug Store,
388 Main Street Cor. Church.

RELIGIOUS NOTES

Freemason Street Church of Christ
Unanimously Calls a Preacher.

Dr. Lloyd, of St. Luke's, Alludes to His Early Departure to Another Field—Memorial at Other Churches—Preacher's Meeting.

The congregation of the Freemason Street Church of Christ (Disciples) has extended a unanimous call to Rev. Benjamin Herr, of Lexington, Ky., to the pastorate of the church. It is believed he will accept.

At the Freemason Street Baptist Church Sunday morning a collection of $350 was raised for the Portsmouth Association building at the Baptist Orphanage at Salem, Va. At the night service this amount was supplemented.

The following additional deacons were elected at the close of the morning service at the First Presbyterian Church Sunday: Messrs. Joseph T. Allyn, B. Bagnall, J. R. Marks, Dr. W. V. Freeman and Judge Spaulding.

SERVICES AT THE ALMHOUSE.

The "Lady Somerset Y" conducted services at the Almhouse Sunday afternoon. Quite a number went and the services were enjoyed by all present. Miss Mattie Bently led the meeting and Messrs. W. A. Walker and W. T. Ballentine led in prayer. Miss Norma McGrath sang very sweetly a solo entitled "In The Secret of His Presence," followed by many professions of faith by the inmates. The service was very inspiring.

An interest was manifested in all of the revival services at the Park Avenue Baptist Church Sunday. There were about four hundred present at the Men's meeting in the afternoon. An unusually large congregation heard Rev. P. G. Elsom preach at night. Between twenty and twenty-five persons professed faith during the day. The meetings will continue through Wednesday, Mr. Elsom preaching at each service.

Rev. Dr. W. J. Young closed his four years' pastorate at Epworth M. E. Church Sunday night, preaching to an overflowing congregation. He will return to Norfolk from conference and preach his farewell sermon the last Sunday night in November. Rev. B. M. Beckham, of the Virginia conference, will preach at Epworth next Sunday morning and night.

Rev. Dr. A. S. Lloyd made the first public reference to his resignation as pastor of St. Luke's Episcopal Church Sunday morning by remarking that he wished the congregation to unite their prayers that the right man may be found to take his place. He also said that he desired the church to unite with him in giving thanks to God for the payment of the church debt, which he announced had been entirely liquidated. The morning service was closed by the administration of infant baptism.

METHODIST PASTORS.

The Methodist Preachers' meeting was presided over yesterday morning by the President, Rev. W. H. Edwards. Prayer was offered by Rev. S. C. Hatcher, of Queen Street Church. Reports were heard from the following churches: Cumberland and Street—Rev. Dr. John A. McKendree—very large congregations at all the services Sunday.

McKendree—Rev. R. H. Bennett had a great day, with overflowing congregations at all the services. He received twenty new members. The amount paid by the church for conference collections and missions is nearly $1,000. There was one conversion at the evening service, and he baptized two infants.

Park View, Portsmouth—Rev. W. R. Proctor reported a fine Sunday School service, a large Rosebud meeting, and fine congregations at the morning and evening services. He received two new members.

Queen Street—Rev. S. C. Hatcher had overflowing congregations and closed the year under very happy auspices, with all assessments paid.

Huntersville—Rev. Daniel T. Merritt had three accessions to the membership.

Wright Memorial, Portsmouth—Rev. R. E. Blankenship reported a fine Sunday School Missionary rally, an address by Dr. Garrett, of the Court Street Baptist Church, and fine congregations at the morning and evening services. He baptized two young ladies and one infant.

Port Norfolk—Rev. J. F. Carey received one new member and reported all conference collections paid.

Central, Portsmouth—Rev. R. F. Beadles had a full day. He will carry an excellent report to conference.

Lambert's Point—Rev. George H. Spooner reported large congregations and pleasant services and all conference collections paid in full.

Monumental, Portsmouth—Rev. L. B. Betty reported everything in excellent condition and pleasant services Sunday.

Owens' Memorial, Portsmouth—Rev.

R. T. Waterfield reported a good day. He received four new members.
Rev. Joseph H. Ames, Presiding Elder of the Rappahannock district, was present, and he gave a most encouraging account of the work in his district. Several new churches had been erected and others remodelled and otherwise improved; the spiritual condition of all the churches was on the upward grade. There had been about 450 conversions in the district during the year, and the conference collections are in advance of previous years.
The meeting adjourned sine die. After the conference it will be reorganized with new officers.

BAPTIST MINISTERS.

The order of the day was a paper read by Dr. R. B. Garrett. His subject was "Boy Life in Dixie in War Times." The paper was a pleasant innovation in the routine work of the conference, but was thoroughly enjoyed by the members present.

Dr. W. F. Fisher reported one baptized Sunday. Rev. T. M. Green, of Kentucky, preached for him at the evening service.

Pastor Cox had one profession of faith.

Pastor Hatcher baptized two.
Pastor Saunders read interesting services and baptized two at night.

Pastor Dunaway's work at Port Norfolk is progressing finely. Received one for baptism.

Pastor Hall is in the midst of a gracious revival, in which he is being assisted by Evangelist P. G. Elsom. There were four services Sunday, in which there were between twenty and twenty-five professions of faith. The meetings continue this week, with most encouraging prospects.

The revival at Central Avenue is still in progress, the pastor having the aid of Rev. L. E. Christie. There have been several professions of faith. One received for baptism.

Pastors Skinner and Dudley exchanged pulpits Sunday morning. In the afternoon Mr. Dudley addressed the Missionary Society of Berkeley Avenue Baptist Church, and Mr. Skinner delivered an address before the Portsmouth Y. M. C. A. on "Martin Luther."

DEATHS AND FUNERALS.

MRS. MARY E. FITZWILSON.

Mrs. Mary E. Fitzwilson, wife of Mr. Charles E. Fitzwilson, of Richmond, and mother of Mrs. W. T. Taylor, of Norfolk, died at her residence Saturday night at 7:30 o'clock. Mrs. Fitzwilson had been sick only a short while, and her death is a great blow to her immediate family and many friends. She was a daughter of Mrs. Frances H. Crane, and was a lovely woman, being a true and fond wife, a dutiful daughter, and a loving and indulgent mother.

Mrs. Fitzwilson was a member of Monumental Church, and exemplified in her life many Christian virtues. She leaves, besides her husband and mother, and the daughter mentioned in the preceding paragraph, three sons—Messrs. J. E. and W. G. Fitzwilson, of New York, and Harry, of Richmond, and three daughters—Mrs. James M. King, and Misses Helen and Grace Fitzwilson. She is survived by a brother also—Dr. J. R. Crane, of Richmond, and three sisters—Mrs. B. Robertson, Mrs. Stella C. French, and Mrs. J. L. Ridenour.

The funeral took place yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock from the Monumental Church. Interment was made in Oakwood.

MRS. MARGARET S. TROWER.

Mrs. Margaret Scott Trower, relict of the late Captain J. R. Trower, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. L. J. LeFaucheur, No. 255 Fenchurch street, at 11 o'clock yesterday morning. Her death was very sudden. Sunday evening she visited one of the neighbors and returned home about 10 o'clock and retired for the night in her usual health. Early yesterday morning she complained of feeling indisposed, but the family did not think her sickness serious. Just before her death she spoke of getting up and dressing; but in a moment afterwards gave one gasp and expired almost immediately. Physicians were hurriedly sent for, but on their arrival they found that the insatiable reaper had claimed her as his own. The deceased was 65 years old. She leaves four children, three sons and one daughter—Messrs. John H. Trower, of Washington, D. C., Samuel R. Trower, of this city; Allen R. Trower, of Old Point; and Mrs. LeFaucheur, of this city. Mrs. Trower was born in Northampton county, but had resided here the greater part of her life. The funeral will be held from Freeman Street Baptist Church Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock and will be conducted by Rev. Dr. J. J. Taylor.

MR. THOMAS EAST.

The obsequies of Mr. Thomas East, who departed this life at his residence, on Corprew avenue, Brambleton Ward, Friday night, were held from Trinity M. E. Church Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The services were conducted by Rev. Lloyd T. Williams, pastor. The remains were laid to rest in Elmwood cemetery.

MR. JAMES R. WILSON.

The funeral of Mr. James R. Wilson, whose death occurred at St. Vincent's Hospital Sunday, was held at the grave, in Elmwood cemetery yesterday morning, and was conducted by Rev. A. S. Lloyd, D. D., of St. Luke's Episcopal Church. The deceased was a brother of Mr. Wright C. Wilson, of this city, and was unmarried. He was about 43 years old.

MRS. ANNIE CLEMENTS.

The remains of Mrs. Annie Clements, who died at the Mansion House Saturday evening, were taken to Brunswick county yesterday morning for funeral and interment.

MR. EUTAW MOSELEY.

Mr. Eutaw Moseley died at his home, No. 109 Church street, at 6:30 a. m. yesterday, aged 45 years. The funeral will take place from the residence at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon.

Disreputable Houses Raided

The police raided two houses on Williamson's lane yesterday and arrested the woman in charge and the inmates at each place. Some of the latter were white. They were allowed to go, after being given a warning. Minerva Williams and Martha Billups were held. They are the colored women who ran the houses. The raids grew out of some evidence of a revolting nature heard in Police Court. The Williams and Billups women will be tried this morning.

The City Circuit Court convened in fall session yesterday, Hon. R. R. Prentiss judge.

Mr. Lawrence Waring, an attorney and publisher of the Daily Record, a small sheet devoted to court transactions, made a motion before Judge Prentiss, of the Circuit Court, yesterday, or a mandatory injunction to compel Mr. Alvah H. Martin, Clerk of the Norfolk County Court, to allow the petitioner access to deeds, bills of sale and other papers admitted to record in the Clerk's office.

Judge Prentiss was on the point of granting the injunction when a telephone message was received from Major J. P. Crocker, of Portsmouth, who is Clerk Martin's counsel. Major Crocker said he wanted to be heard in the matter, and when he came over to court it was finally decided, upon his motion, to continue the case until the 20th instant. In the meantime Mr. Waring will be allowed access to the records.

Mr. Waring says Mr. Martin refused to let him inspect the deeds, etc., unless he was paid something for the privilege, claiming that Mr. Waring made money out of his publication, the Daily Record, and that he had no right to inspect the records, inasmuch as he did not do so in his capacity of a lawyer. Mr. Waring contends that he can no more be charged for the privilege to inspect the deeds than he can for publishing a newspaper.

CASE DISMISSED.

The case of Jacob Haupt against the city, which was compromised several months ago, was dropped from the docket. Haupt sued for $5,000 damages for personal injuries sustained because of the alleged negligence of the city.

The following cases were set for trial: Wednesday, November 15th—John C. Wise vs. George Newton et al.

Friday, the 17th—C. W. Sams vs. city of Norfolk et al.

Monday, the 20th—Sallie Stevenson vs. Metropolitan Life Insurance Company.

Tuesday, the 21st—E. S. Ferguson vs. Bernard Abel.

Wednesday, the 22nd—Charles H. Parker vs. city of Norfolk.

Friday, the 24th—Tunis Lumber Company vs. town of Berkeley, etc.

Monday, the 27th—Marshall Parks vs. A. S. Martin.

IN LEGAL CIRCLES

A Norfolk Publisher After the Norfolk County Court Clerk.

Damage Suit Dismissed to City Circuit Court—Cases Set For Trial—Qualifications in Corporation Court—Property Transfers.

The City Circuit Court convened in fall session yesterday, Hon. R. R. Prentiss judge.

Mr. Lawrence Waring, an attorney and publisher of the Daily Record, a small sheet devoted to court transactions, made a motion before Judge Prentiss, of the Circuit Court, yesterday, or a mandatory injunction to compel Mr. Alvah H. Martin, Clerk of the Norfolk County Court, to allow the petitioner access to deeds, bills of sale and other papers admitted to record in the Clerk's office.

Judge Prentiss was on the point of granting the injunction when a telephone message was received from Major J. P. Crocker, of Portsmouth, who is Clerk Martin's counsel. Major Crocker said he wanted to be heard in the matter, and when he came over to court it was finally decided, upon his motion, to continue the case until the 20th instant. In the meantime Mr. Waring will be allowed access to the records.

Mr. Waring says Mr. Martin refused to let him inspect the deeds, etc., unless he was paid something for the privilege, claiming that Mr. Waring made money out of his publication, the Daily Record, and that he had no right to inspect the records, inasmuch as he did not do so in his capacity of a lawyer. Mr. Waring contends that he can no more be charged for the privilege to inspect the deeds than he can for publishing a newspaper.

CASE DISMISSED.

The case of Jacob Haupt against the city, which was compromised several months ago, was dropped from the docket. Haupt sued for $5,000 damages for personal injuries sustained because of the alleged negligence of the city.

The following cases were set for trial: Wednesday, November 15th—John C. Wise vs. George Newton et al.

Friday, the 17th—C. W. Sams vs. city of Norfolk et al.

Monday, the 20th—Sallie Stevenson vs. Metropolitan Life Insurance Company.

Tuesday, the 21st—E. S. Ferguson vs. Bernard Abel.

Wednesday, the 22nd—Charles H. Parker vs. city of Norfolk.

Friday, the 24th—Tunis Lumber Company vs. town of Berkeley, etc.

Monday, the 27th—Marshall Parks vs. A. S. Martin.

THE CORPORATION COURT.

In the Corporation Court the will of the late Mrs. Annie Worthington Crocker was admitted to probate yesterday. The estate is valued at $1,500 and Mr. C. C. Couper, husband of the testator, qualified as executor under a $3,000 bond with no surety. Almost the entire estate is left to the husband of the testatrix.

Mrs. Eva Barrett, whose husband, Fireman Thomas A. Barrett, died from the effects of injuries received in the St. Vincent's Hospital fire, qualified as guardian of Mary G. Barrett and Geo. W. Barrett, infants under 14 years of age. Bond was given in the sum of $2,000, with Andrew Dusch as surety.

Clifford P. Crowder qualified as administrator of the estate of the late William A. Crowder, under a bond of $2,500. The appraisers of the estate are Jacob Dunston, John F. Dunbar and William Vassum.

Clifford P. Crowder also qualified as guardian of Joseph Stanley Crowder, orphan of William A. Crowder. The American Bonding and Trust Company, of Baltimore, became his surety in the sum of $2,500, in the former qualification and $2,000 in the latter.

PROPERTY TRANSFERS.

The following deeds of transfer were admitted to record yesterday by Clerk Royster:

H. A. Crockett to Security Real Estate Company, lot fronting 90 feet on the east side of Dewey avenue, Atlantic City Ward; $450.

Same to M. W. Tebault, lot 21 on Crockett's map; $150.

M. W. Tebault to Security Real Estate Company, strip fronting five feet on Dewey avenue; $23.75.

Same to G. T. Godfrey, lot with improvements, fronting 25 feet on the east side of Dewey avenue; $1,200.

Linda W. Dawes et al. to W. C. Cobb, lot fronting 25.26 feet on the east side of Colonial avenue, near Bolsevain avenue; also strip fronting five feet on the east side of Colonial avenue and running back 121.3 feet; $2,400.

W. C. Cobb to James E. Etheridge, lot fronting 10 feet on the east side of Colonial avenue, near Bolsevain avenue; $800.

Mrs. A. E. Krise to Ann E. Coggin, the west half of a lot fronting 25 feet on Mowbray avenue, Bible Place; $500.

The Security Real Estate Company to A. R. Powell, lot with improvements fronting 25 feet on the east side of Dewey avenue; $1,200.

THE POLICE COURT.

The docket in the Police Court yesterday morning was not as large as usual Monday morning. A list of their names, charges on which they were arraigned, and the disposition made of them by Justice Tomlin, will be found in the following paragraphs:

Alex. Kevan, colored, charged with the larceny of a $25 suit of clothes from Bartlett Perry, also colored, will be tried this morning.

Florence Holland and Mollie Hoskin, both colored, were given ten days each in jail for robbing a young man from North Carolina of $25 in a house in Reid's lane Saturday night.

Mazie King, colored, will spend sixty days in jail for stealing property valued at $17.25 from R. E. King.

James Hurt got drunk and was "taken in." When searched at the station house a pistol was found on his person, and he handed over $22.50 and was allowed to depart.

Jessie Davis, colored, charged with stealing a watch, was remanded to jail until November 23d.

Mary Gatling, colored, was fined $12 for trespassing and using abusive language. An appeal to the Corporation Court was noted.

A. K. Johnson and J. W. Hoffman, proprietors of a saloon at the corner of Commercial Place and Union street, were arraigned, the former charged with stealing $162, and the latter a watch, all the property of George Jackson, of the oyster sloop John Smith. The case of Jackson was first called, and Justice Tomlin held the prisoner without bail for the grand jury.

In the case of Hoffman the evidence was such that neither man could be convicted, and Justice Tomlin reversed his decision and discharged both men. Detectives Heppel and West, who had charge of the case, have not as yet recovered any of the missing property. Jackson had been drinking and it is very likely he was "fleece" out of his roll by some of Norfolk's crooks.

THE CITY MISSION.

WHAT IT WAS ORGANIZED TO DO.

The City Mission, recently organized in Norfolk by lady members of the Methodist Churches of the city, has entered upon active work and bids fair to meet the expectations of the membership and its friends.

The City Mission is founded upon broad lines and cannot, of course, do a great work in detail at first, but it is intended to ultimately give close personal attention and direction to every department which will elevate and ennoble our fellow beings. Particular attention will be paid to the children and youth of the city. Sunday schools will be established where there are none and their influence is needed. The literature will be taught to read and write, training classes will be organized, the minds and hands of the young taught how to work along beneficial lines; love of the good and beautiful will be inculcated; the sick and suffering poor looked after, and nothing left undone that will teach people to respect and observe law and order, become self-reliant and self-supporting, and live here a better life.

This in brief is an imperfect outline of the work the City Mission has undertaken to do in Norfolk and the suburbs. The ladies need and desire the co-operation of every church member and citizen who desires to see young and old led from sin to righteousness; poverty and misery to sufficient food and raiment; to bring contentment, and from idleness to honest labor. As the needs of the organization are placed before the good people of Norfolk it is believed that they will not be slow in supplying them.

The City Mission held a well-attended and interesting meeting yesterday afternoon and mapped out a portion of the work it is desired to immediately prosecute.

Oxford herring-bone suitings; a pleasure to show our large variety.
RUDOLPHI & WALLACE,
333 Main street.

DOZIER'S

New Comforts at Remarkably Low Prices

New processed Cotton Comforters with rich silkoline coverings, $1.25 and $2.00.
Heavy Satteen Comforters in many beautiful silky designs, $2.50, $3.00, $4.00, etc.

Eiderdown Quilts with satteen covering, $4.69 and $6.00.
Rich, Fluffy Eiderdown Quilts, with beautiful silk coverings, at $8.50, $10 and $11.

Come to the "new store" for your new bed coverings.

S. DOZIER,

206 Main St., Norfolk, Va.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC BUILDING.

It's An Experiment.

It's rather more profitable to treat three persons at five dollars per month each than one at $10.

But can I get 3 times as many at $5?

There's the rub! I am going to risk it for one month, anyway. I have been charging heretofore $10.00 per month for treating Catarrh, but to test the matter I will treat anyone who begins my treatment before December 1 for five dollars per month, including medicines, and will continue the treatment at that rate until cured. But this rate does not apply to cases of Asthma, Consumption, Deafness or Surgical Operations. It does apply to all other cases. Whether I continue this rate beyond this month or not depends on the number of new patients it brings me. But in any event, those who begin under this offer will be treated at this rate until cured. Remember that my treatment for Catarrh is mild and painless, but wonderfully effective.

Has offices 1 and 2 No. 314 Main street, Norfolk, Va. Specialties: Catarrh and all diseases of Eye, Ear, Nose, Throat, Chest and Stomach.

Hours, 9 a. m. to 12:30 p. m.; 2 p. m. to 6:30 p. m. Sunday, 10 a. m. to 12:30 p. m. Tuesday night and Thursday, 7:45 p. m. to 8:15 p. m.

Consultation always free. Medicines furnished. Terms always moderate. Eyes examined for glasses free of charge.

W. B. Firey, M.D.

WATT, RETTEW &amp; CLAY.

Handsome Couch Cushions.